Dear Parents and Carers,

For GCSE English Literature students are required to have their own copies of the set texts needed to study in preparation for their exams. If they have their own copy, they can take them home for extra study and revision, and can annotate and make notes in them in class, which is vital for revision and learning. Having their own copy of the texts will make a huge difference to their overall performance in the exams, and will also boost confidence.

Therefore, we are advising parents and carers to purchase the following set texts (these versions are our recommended choice). We will be studying A Christmas Carol this term (after October half term), so it's important to buy this text as soon as possible please.

Relevant texts needed are:

- Romeo and Juliet* by William Shakespeare ISBN 978-0-19-832166-8
- An Inspector Calls* by J B Priestley ISBN 978-0-435232-82-5
- A Christmas Carol* by Charles Dickens ISBN 978-1-407143-64-4

These are the book covers to look out for:

All texts can be purchased on Amazon and from many popular book shops, e.g. WH Smiths and Waterstones.

Thank you for your support, and please don't hesitate to get in touch if you have any questions or concerns.

Yours faithfully,
Michyla Rossa
Assistant Head of English
